- 1.3 These terms and conditions shall apply to contracts on the temporary cession of hotel rooms for the purpose of accommodation as well as all of the Hotel's further deliveries and services provided to the Guest.
- 1.4 The subletting or re-letting of the let rooms as well as their utilisation for purposes other than accommodation require the Hotel's prior written consent.

- 2.4 Should the Guest want to change the number of reserved rooms, any further services or the duration of his stay later on, this shall require the Hotel's consent. The approval may predicate on an increased price.

3. Withdrawal / cancellation by the Guest

- 3.1 The Guest only has the right to withdraw from the contract on the rental of hotel rooms concluded with him if this has been expressly agreed in the contract or exists under statutory law.
- 3.2 If the right of withdrawal is not exercised within the period agreed, it will expire after this period has lapsed and the contract will continue in full effect with the effect that the Guest will have to pay the agreed services even if he does not make use of the ordered deliveries and services, especially the reserved rooms.

4. Withdrawal by the Hotel

- 4.1 If and to the extent to which a right of withdrawal in favour of the Guest has been agreed the Hotel for his part is entitled to withdraw from the contract within the period agreed if the Hotel has received requests for services ordered by the Guest from third parties and the Guest upon enquiry by the Hotel, giving notice of such circumstances and following an appropriate deadline, does not waive the right of withdrawal he was granted.
- 4.2 If and to the extent to which advance payments have been agreed with the Guest and the Guest does not effect them, not even within a reasonable period set by the Hotel, then the Hotel is entitled to withdraw from the contract and claim damages.
- 4.3 Furthermore, the Hotel is entitled to withdraw from the contract extraordinarily, especially if force majeure or other conditions, for which the Hotel is not responsible, make the fulfilment of the contract impossible or unreasonably impede it; rooms have been culpably reserved by giving misleading or wrong information or concealing substantial facts, e.g. about the Guest, his solvency or the reason of his stay; the Hotel reasonably believes that the utilisation of the deliveries and services provided by the Hotel may impair the smooth business operations, the hotel's security or public image without being attributable to the Hotel's domain or organisational area; there is a violation of clause 1.4. (subletting and reletting).

6. Liability of the Guest

- 6.1 Losses in the hotel room and damages there of occurring during the contract period shall be assumed to have been culpably caused by the Guest unless the damage demonstrably lies in the Hotel's area of responsibility or has proven to be caused by a third party.

7. Defects, liability of the Hotel and limitation period

- 7.1 Should there be any defects concerning the deliveries and services provided by the Hotel or should the services be disturbed, the Guest shall give notice of such defect upon detecting it – in any case before the end of the event – to give the Hotel the opportunity to take remedial action where necessary as soon as possible or rather to guarantee the deliveries' and services' compliance with the contract. The Guest is obliged to contribute whatever may be reasonably expected of him and besides minimise any possible damage.
- 7.2 Insofar as the Guest makes use of a valet park service – also on payment of a fee – a separate contract will be concluded.

- 7.5 The Hotel shall be liable for the culpable violation of the essential contractual obligations in accordance with statutory law. Essential contractual obligations are obligations that characterise the contract, the fulfilment of which are a prerequisite for enabling the proper fulfilment of the contract in the first place and the compliance of which the Guest may regularly trust in. Insofar as the Hotel can neither be charged of grossly negligent nor intentional behavior its liability shall be limited to the damage typically foreseeable. For damage arising from injury to life, body or health due to a culpable breach of duty the Hotel shall be liable subject to statutory law. In all other matters, claims for damages against the Hotel arising from breaches of duty shall be excluded. Money, securities and valuables need to be locked away in the hotel or room safe. The Hotel will not accept money, securities and valuables exceeding a value of 800 EUR or any other items exceeding a value of 3,500 EUR unless otherwise expressly agreed upon.
- 7.6 Unless a shorter legal prescription period is applicable, claims against the Hotel are subject to a prescription period of twelve months starting at the same time as the statutory limitation period. This does not apply to claims for damages as specified in clause 7.5.
